2009 OK APHC FUTURITIES & STAKES CLASSES

The Oklahoma Appaloosa Horse Club will sponsor the futurities/stakes classes listed and noted as OAHC. The owner and handler must be members of the Oklahoma Appaloosa Horse Club, and memberships are due with first payment. All horses must have show papers from the Appaloosa Horse Club, Inc. A copy of these papers (front & back) must be filed with the Oklahoma Appaloosa Horse Club. If a nominated horse is sold, the new owner must also become a member of the O.A.H.C. for the horse to show. All rules and regulations of the O.A.H.C., the Oklahoma State Fair, and the ApHC must be met. The Oklahoma State Fair requires all horses to have a current negative Coggins, and health papers, to show at the Fair. The O.A.H.C. reserves the right to cancel any Futurity or Stake class with less than 5 entries. There will be no transfer of fees from horse to horse. The Oklahoma State Fair will be providing added money. Oklahoma State Fair will NOT require entry fees paid to the OSF for the Futurity classes but it is necessary to include the pertinent class numbers on your OSF entry form and to make sure you do also enter and pay entry fees for the OSF “relative” class. Contact the Oklahoma Appaloosa Horse Club for more information regarding their Futurity/Stakes program. Prize money won in OAHC Futurity/Stakes classes will be paid by OAHC.

SOONER SUPER STALLIONS STAKES

New in 2009! We welcome the involvement and inclusion of the Sooner Appaloosa Horse Club through their Sooner Super Stallion Stakes. For more information regarding entry into the SAHC Futurity Classes/Stakes, contact the SAHC as noted on the previous page. You must be duly enrolled in the SAHC Futurity program and the stallion owner a member of the SAHC to participate in the classes indicated “Sooner.....” and you must enter the corresponding OSF classes as noted herein. OSF will not require additional class entry fees for the classes entitled “Sooner.....” But it is necessary to include the pertinent class numbers on your OSF entry form.

W-9 Form (Rev. October 2007) Department of the Treasury Internal Revenue Service	Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification	Give form to the requester. Do not send to the IRS.
Print or type See specific instructions on page 2.	Name (as shown on your income tax return)
	Business name, if different from above
	Check appropriate box: <input type="checkbox"/> Individual/sole proprietor <input type="checkbox"/> Corporation <input type="checkbox"/> Partnership <input type="checkbox"/> Limited liability company. Enter the tax classification (D=disregarded entity, C=corporation, P=partnership) ▶ _____ <input type="checkbox"/> Exempt payee
	Address (number, street, and apt. or suite no.)
	City, state, and ZIP code
	Requestor's name and address (optional)
	List account number(s) here (optional)
Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)
Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on Line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3. Note, if the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.
	Social security number	Employer identification number
Part II Certification
Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:
1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).
Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

General Instructions
Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.
Purpose of Form
A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.
Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:
1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued).
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.
Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.
Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:
• An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
• A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
• An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
• A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).
Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.
The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:
• The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
