This is blacksmith, Melvin Parker, in his shop which was four miles north of White Oak, OK. (above) These horses were not Bill's. Bill would go get Melvin Parker, take him to Welch to work on the Cass horses, then Bill's wife, Ethelyn, would take him home.

Here's Bill (below) getting on Colida from the fence as he often did.